FROM THE TEACHERS:

Pre-K

We had a great week in Pre-K! Please continue to review vowels with your child.

This week our focus will be on the following-

Letter: Xx

Number: 23

Color: green

Shape: rectangle

Kindergarten

We are learning all about the Solar System!

Read, Read, Read! Please read at least 15 min. a day with your child

First Grade

Thank you to Mrs. Seewoster for donating playground balls and items for the class treasure box. The class has greatly appreciated it.

First grade has been learning about the Scientific Method and has completed their first science experiment. They have done a great job applying what they have learned.

Second Grade

Congratulations to everyone who received an academic award for the 2nd quarter! Next week the cereal box book reports are due. We only have 3 weeks until Easter break. We are getting ready for Easter by learning about Jesus and his miracles leading up to the resurrection.

Third & Fourth Grades

Congratulations to all those who received awards on Friday for our second quarter!

Third grade began their poem "Washington" this week and fourth is continuing on "The Children's Hour". Both are due on April 9.

Also upcoming this week for 3rd grade are a Math test on Tuesday, and a Language test on Friday. 4th 's tests for the week are Math on Wednesday, and Science on Thursday.

Fifth Grade

Our garden is almost planted. We would really like to plant some strawberry plants and have need of two more tomatoe cages. If you feel lead to donate these, we would be truely blessed. Our history presentations were wonderful. Great job 5th grade!

Sixth Grade

Please sign and return your student's progress report that went home on Friday. Also, please remind your student to return his book report book to class this week.

Junior High

As we move into Spring weather, please continue to encourage your student to remain diligent in his or her studies. I am still offering help with Math after school on Tuesdays (with rare exceptions) from 3:15-3:45. All Jr. High students are welcome and encouraged to attend. We will begin our next unit of study in Art next week. Students will need Origami Paper as well as basic art supplies (scissors, glue, crayons, markers, etc.). Have a blessed week!
