We are getting ready for the end of the year as we are in our final reading books. We are working on drawing patterns in art this week as well. The animal project is due this week on Thursday, the 22nd. I am so excited to see all the habitats and animal facts they have learned. Our annual Family Fun Fair is next Friday from 2-5. Information for ordering food and tickets went home last week and I hope everyone is planning to join us. I would like to encourage parents to sign up for our booth for the family fun fair. You can find the sign up sheet on the parent board outside the classroom. Yearbooks are on sale right now and there are so many cute pictures of your kiddos. So, make sure you order yours so you don't miss out. Have an amazing week! There will be no school Monday in honor of Memorial Day.
